

View from the Summit 2010 Conference

WSTA

June 26 –29, 2010
Midway, Utah

Focused on Transportation in the WEST

Sponsorship Elevations 2010 Conferences

$2,500 level
$1,500 level
$1,000 level
$ 750 level
$ 500 level

Mount Nebo
Mount Timpanogos
American Fork Twin Peaks
Little Matterhorn
White Baldy

Mount Nebo, Elevation 11,928 feet - a triple peak rising above Nephi, Utah at the southern end of the range, is the highest peak of the Wasatch Range.

$2,500 Premier Opening Dinner Sponsor. Limit 1 sponsor

- Opportunity to highlight your company in a 3-5 minute presentation at opening Dinner.
- Company name and logo displayed throughout the conference.
- Company name and logo in conference brochure.
- Company name and logo displayed on the WSTA website, with a link to your website.
- Priority seating at Opening Dinner.

Mount Timpanogos —Elevation 11,749 feet - the second highest mountain in Utah's Wasatch Range, the 47th-most prominent mountain in the contiguous United States.

$1,500 Premier Opening Reception Sponsor. Limit 1

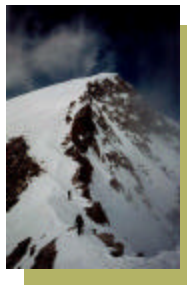

- Opportunity to highlight your company in a 1-2 minute presentation at opening reception.
- Company name and logo displayed through out the conference.
- Company name and logo in conference brochure.

American Fork Twin Peaks Elevation: 11,489 ft - Although the peak is referred to as a 'Twin', there is actually a third unnamed summit a short distance to the south.

$1,000 Breakfast Sponsor

- Company name and logo displayed through out the conference.
- Company name and logo in conference brochure.
- Company name and logo displayed on the WSTA website, with a link to your website.

Pfeifferhorn aka: Little Matterhorn Elevation: 11,329 feet - the perfectly shaped triangular peak in the Wasatch Mountains. This extremely rugged Utah Mountain is commonly referred to as the "Little Matterhorn"

$750 Breakfast Sponsor

- Company name and logo displayed throughout the conference.
- Company name and logo in conference brochure.
- Company name and logo displayed on the MHTA website.

White Baldy Elevation: 11,321 feet - one of the highest peaks in the Wasatch Range. Quite rugged and seldom climbed.

$500 Coffee and Snack Break Sponsor

- Company name and logo displayed through out the conference.
- Company Logo displayed in the conference brochure.

WSTA

Focused on Transportation in the WEST

2010 Sponsorship Commitment and Information Sheet

Name of Company _____

(As it will appear on signage)

Contact Name _____

Email Address _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Phone: _____

Sponsorship Level: _____

Please email logo to anne@themeetingedge.com

_____ Check payable to WSTA, 7010 Broadway #320 Denver, CO 80221

Check must be received by May 15, 2010

_____ Charge, fill in below and fax to 303-451-7567

Credit Card # _____ Exp _____

Name on Credit Card: _____ Billing Zip Code: _____

For more information, contact RJ Hicks, RJ@RJHicksInc.com